

REPORTING CHILD ABUSE AND NEGLECT

NEPN/NSBA CODE: JLF

I Definitions

- A. Child abuse or neglect. Child abuse or neglect is defined by Maine law as:
- i. “a threat to a child’s health or welfare by physical, mental or emotional injury or impairment, sexual abuse or exploitation, deprivation of essential needs or lack of protection from these by a person responsible for the child.
  - ii. Truancy (for a child who is either 1) age 5 and under age 6 and who has been voluntarily enrolled in school or 2) six years of age and has not completed grade six, if a child described in 1 or 2 has the equivalent of seven full days of unexcused absences or five consecutive school days or unexcused absences during a school year) when the absence is the result of the neglect by a person responsible for the child.
  - iii. “a threat to a child’s health or welfare caused by child sex trafficking by any person, regardless of whether or not the person is responsible for the child”
- B. Person responsible for the child. A “person responsible for the child” means a person with responsibility for a child’s health or welfare, whether in the child’s home or another home or a facility which, as part of its function, provides for the care of the child. It includes the child’s parent, guardian, or other custodian.
- C. Child Sex Trafficking. Child sex trafficking means the recruitment, harboring, transportation, provision or obtaining of a child for the purpose of a commercial sex act.

II. Employees’ Duty to Report

- A. Any employee of the school unit who knows or has reason to suspect that a child has been or is likely to be abused or neglected must immediately notify the principal.
- B. In addition to notifying the building principal/designated agent, the employee may also make a report directly to the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) and the District Attorney if required as described in (see also Section III.B which provides further information about reporting to DHHS and/or the District Attorney).
- C. If the reporting employee does not receive written confirmation from the building principal/designated agent or Superintendent within 24 hours of his/her notification that a report has been made to DHHS (and the District Attorney if required), as described in Section III D, the employee shall make an immediate report directly to DHHS and, if the person suspected is not a person responsible for the child, to the District Attorney. In such cases, the employee shall then complete a copy of the Suspected Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Form (JLF-E) in consultation with the building principal/designated agent.
- D. If the notifying employee does receive written confirmation from the building principal/designated agent or Superintendent within 24 hours or their notification as described in Section III. D (on the Suspected Child Abuse and Neglect Form (see JLF-E) he/she shall sign the form as acknowledgement that the report was made and return it to the building principal/designated agent.

- E. Any volunteer who has reason to suspect that a child has been or is likely to be abused or neglected is also expected to make a report to the building principal/designated agent and may also make a report directly to DHHS and the District Attorney if required (Section III.B)
- F. Electronic reporting of suspected child abuse or neglect through the DHHS-approved reporting portal is permitted.

III. Administrator Reporting and Confirmation Duties.

All building administrators and the Superintendent are designated agents to make child abuse and neglect reports. Other administrators may also designate a specific agent to receive reports.

- A. If a building administrator receives the report he/she shall notify the Superintendent immediately.
- B. The Superintendent or building administrator shall then make an immediate report by telephone of suspected abuse or neglect DHHS. In addition, if the person suspected of abuse or neglect is not the parent, guardian or other custodian of the child, the Superintendent/building administrator shall also make a report to the District Attorney.
- C. The law requires the reporting employee to make his/her own report to DHHS and the District Attorney if required, if he/she has not received confirmation within 24 hours that such a report has been made by the Superintendent/building administrator.
- D. The person making the report to DHHS and/or the District Attorney shall complete the Suspected Child Abuse or Neglect Form (JLF-E).
- E. The Superintendent/building administrator shall provide a copy of the Suspected Child Abuse or Neglect Form to the reporting employee within 24 hours of the employee's initial report. The reporting employee shall sign the report and return it to the Superintendent/ building principal.
- F. The form will be forwarded to DHHS and to the District Attorney if required. It shall be retained by the school unit for ten years, along with any other information relevant to the case.
